I DO NOT OWN H2O! Just to let you know this is my first time writing a story hope you like it. **. This was** **Cleo and rikki's first year without Emma they were walking Down the beach as they saw some guys mocking a blonde haired girl Cleo used her power to cause the water to flip the guys board as his friends watched laughing as there girl walked past them she turned around while walking behined and looked at them and continued walking. Cleo and rikki lay on there beach towel when rikki said"i miss Emma I wish she was here" "rikki"said Cleo "Emma is luky to be going on around the world trip with her family not may people get that chance" "I know but I miss her so much" rikki replied and then Cleo's phone ringed her dad was calling wanting to meet her at home so she told rikki that she had to go and picked her beach towel and wrapped her skirt around her and headed home and rikki did the same.** Hope you liked it I will write more soon.
